ABOUT ME

I was born in Barcelona and before I finished my studies in piano and vocal performance as a lyric soprano, I worked as a technical architect. I tend to be an advocate for health and fitness so I combine a yoga & meditation routine with my singing career. My interest in taking care of my body and learning about it makes me develop my potentials further. As an artist and a person, the harmonious connection between mind and body are the most important component.
